

Librarians:

You know better than anyone how difficult it is to find valuable programs for young adults.

“I Got In!” -- Keys to Successful College Interviews offers vital preparation for teens ó from the initial handshake and smile to the final goodbye (followed by a thank you note).

Don't pay high prices to an outside expert, and then worry if students will show up the only day of the class.

Use this coaching program as often as you like. Anyone can run it ó a parent, an educator, a friend of the library or you (even if you're shy). It's easy, because:

- The seminar is written out word for word
- The Teacher's Manual gives precise instructions as well as hints to make the class fun
- Common interview questions and answers are provided as well as a handout for students
- The groups are small, informal and very friendly.

Information about the class:

The class is explicit in showing how to avoid common mistakes. Among other basics, students learn to dress appropriately and arrive early.

Interview questions are discussed. Each student gets ideas for accentuating personal strengths and minimizing weaknesses.

Role play is used as a lively and fun method of instruction. Students learn to communicate more effectively; they acquire important new skills.

By the end of the seminar, students are brimming with confidence. They know what is required, what to expect and how to interview successfully.

The class is designed for high school juniors and seniors. It lasts 1½ hours.

“I Got In!” – Keys to Successful College Interviews is aligned with the learning standards and goals of the New York State Dept. of Education Career Development and Occupational Studies (CDOS) as well as the National Association of Independent Schools (NAIS).

Topics covered are:

- Why Interviews Are Important
- Staying On Track
- Are You Good Enough To Get In?
- Your Best Traits
- Confidence and Enthusiasm
- Your Only Goal
- How To Dress
- Time To Get To The Interview
- When You Get There, You'í
- The Receptionist
- The Interviewer
- Meeting The Interviewer
- The Interviewer's Office
- What Do Colleges Look For?
- Know Yourself, Your Goals
- Learn About The College
- Interview Questions ó Be Prepared
- Should You Ask Questions?
- Ending The Interview
- After The Interview

Help teens prepare for awards, scholarship and job interviews as well as for college!

Provide an important service to your community!

Fee for Seminar: $299.00

Lesley Cymrot, the author, feels strongly about the importance of interviews. On the basis of a half hour conversation with a stranger, a person's whole future can change.

Ms. Cymrot wants you to be able to help students get the future they deserve by preparing them for that crucial thirty minutes.

“I Got In! – Keys to Successful College Interviews has been taught with outstanding results at numerous libraries. Librarians can present this class easily and effectively.

Ms. Cymrot has a B.A. from Connecticut College and an M.A. from Teachers College at Columbia University. She has taught French at high school and college levels and has New York and New Jersey teachers licenses.

Reviews from librarians:

“Anyone can run this class & even introverts. It's so conversational and friendly, it almost runs itself.”

“This class is a pleasure to present.”

“The students really had fun while they learned.”

“Students are actually transformed in an hour and a half!”

“Best class ever & it gives teens really valuable skills for life.”

Reviews from students:

“I know I'll do better at interviews than kids who haven't taken this class.”

“I won't be as scared going on interviews now.”

“I can't believe how much I learned so fast.”

“I had no idea I had to sit up straight for the whole time.”

“It was awesome.”

NEW!

AVAILABLE TO LIBRARIANS!

Now, for the first time, you can purchase the popular seminar:

“I GOT IN!” Keys to Successful College Interviews

This invaluable one-session class with role play teaches skills and confidence & assuring success at interviews.

- Program comes with comprehensive Teacher's Guide
- Use the program as often as you like & whenever it fits your schedule
- Affordable one-time fee
- Can be run by educator, volunteer or librarian.

Lesley Cymrot
Learning Seminars Co.
914-328-3506

Email: cymrots@yahoo.com

