

Library in a Bag: Books and More at Your Door!

A Quantum Leap in Convenient Service

Does your work schedule make it difficult for you to get to the library?

Would you sometimes like to skip a trip to the library to pick up DVDs and books?

- Library in a Bag mails requested library materials directly to your home.
- Who is eligible for this service?
You are eligible to receive Library in a Bag service if you reside in Burlington County and have a library card in good standing from the Burlington County Library System.
- What items can be mailed to me?
Any item from our collection that can be requested for pickup can also be delivered to you by mail. Only reference materials, Browsing Collection items, and interlibrary loans are not available to be mailed.
- How do I request items to be mailed?
You can request materials to be mailed to you in one of the following ways:
  - Request an item from the BCLS online catalog, <http://hip.bcls.lib.nj.us>. Place a hold on the desired item, and then choose MAIL from the pick-up location menu.
  - Call one of the libraries listed on the back of this brochure and ask a staff member to request the items you want and to choose MAIL as the pickup location.
  - You may send an email to libinbag@bcls.lib.nj.us and indicate which items you would like to have mailed to you. Please include your name and library barcode.
  - The regular renewal policy applies. If items are not on reserve or overdue, they may be renewed online, in person or by telephone.
- How are items delivered?
  - Items will be mailed through the United States Postal Service, at Library Rate.
  - Items will be mailed to you in various types of envelopes, depending on the size and quantity of the items.
  - Postage is paid to your address by the Burlington County Library System.
  - Users of the service are encouraged to return mailed items to any of the libraries listed on the back of this brochure.
  - Customers who choose to mail their items back are responsible for return postage.
