Karen and Pete,

This special announcement went out to our email newsletter list (about 2,500) today. We have gotten several calls about the service from the public. The first package was mailed today to a Glassboro customer.

MailLit!

Your library by mail!

MailLit is the new Books-by-Mail service being offered by the Gloucester County Library System. Now you can request that titles you place on hold with the Library System be mailed to your residence at no charge.

With gas prices up, we think MailLit is a good way for you to save money and get your items quickly, without the hassle of coming to the library to pick them up.

At this time, MailLit is only available to cardholders of the Gloucester County Library System. If you have a GCLS card, you may use our web-based catalog to place holds on your favorite book or audiovisual titles. Just point your browser to www.gcls.org and click on "Library Catalog." Any title within the collections of the GCLS branch libraries can be mailed to you. Books, audiobooks, music CDs and DVDs are all available. The only exceptions are reference books and express titles.

When you place your hold, just be sure to click on the mail option. You may also place holds at any GCLS branch, by phone to your local branch, or via email to maillit@gcls.org, and request the items be mailed to you.

You may request a renewal on your holds, either via the web or by calling 856-223-6060 during regular library hours. Items on hold for others cannot be renewed. The due date on your items will be three weeks after they are mailed to you, which includes return time. Late items will incur a fine of 10 cents per day.

You will be responsible for returning your books on time. You may return them to any GCLS library branch or affiliated library. This is the most cost effective method. You may mail them back in the same bag you received them, but you are responsible for return postage (library rate). We will include a return label for your convenience. Just tape the bag shut.

For more information about MailLit, please call 856-223-6015 or email maillit@gcls.org. MailLit is funded by the South Jersey Regional Library Cooperative (SJRLC) and the Gloucester County Library System. SJRLC and its services are funded by the New Jersey State Library, which is responsible for the coordination, promotion, and funding of the New Jersey Library Network.
