It's in the bag

Itching to get your hands on the latest book or DVD, but just don't have time to make it to the library?

No worries. The Burlington County Library System has introduced Library In A Bag. Simply call, e-mail or reserve an item online and they'll mail it to your home.

The program is grant funded and has delivered over 1,300 packages to county library cardholders since its inception two months ago.

Sounds too good to be true? The only catch is you pay for the return shipping or simply drop off the item at a library, Burlington County College or the Shop Rite at Marlton Circle, which has a library drop box.
