SJRLC Executive Board

2009 Slate of Candidates

Public Library Representative:

Robert Hunter - Haddon Heights Public Library

Bob has served on the Executive Board since 2006 and is currently Board President. He is a 12-year member of the SJRLC Advocacy Team, participated in all of our planning days, and has been instrumental in organizing our booth at the South Jersey Chamber of Commerce Business Expo.

Lay Representative:

Doug Olsen – Burlington County College Adjunct Faculty

Doug is a retired English teacher of 34 years at Pemberton Twp. High School. He has an AB from Wheaton College (Illinois), an MA from The John Hopkins University in Creative Writing, and 17 years of teaching at Burlington County College as an adjunct. He enjoys creative writing, reading, and movies.

At-Large Representatives:

Arlene Baker – Haddon Township High School Library

Arlene is past chair of the SJRLC Book Evaluation and a mentor in development of our first SJRLC A+ Partnership for South Jersey Kids and Teens. She participated in all of our long-range planning days.

Brett Bonfield – Collingswood Public Library

A former professional fundraiser, Brett has been a speaker at the SJRLC Making the Most of Bad Times meeting and conducted our Fundraising Workshop. His writing has appeared in Library Journal and Reference and User Services Quarterly.

Norman Gluckman – Avalon Public Library

Norm has served on the SJRLC Executive Board since 2006. During his tenure on the Board, Norm moved from Millville Public Library to Avalon Public Library where he has inaugurated creative new services for summer and year-round residents.

Amy Rominiecki – Seneca High School Library

As a three-year chair, Amy was instrumental in revamping and streamlining the SJRLC Book Evaluation process. She is a member of the SJRLC School Group and was a participant in our long-range planning day. She is Corresponding Secretary of NJASL.

Anne Wodnick – Gloucester County Library

Anne has been a member of the SJRLC Advocacy Team for the past four years, a participant in our long range planning day, and active in staffing our booth at the South Jersey Chamber of Commerce Business Expo.
