What’s New @ the Mount Laurel Library?

In June 2003, Mount Laurel Library was selected to be the statewide demonstration site for visual merchandising techniques in a library.

Completed in Spring 2004, this joint project was funded by the New Jersey State Library, South Jersey Regional Library Cooperative and Mount Laurel Library. Local project dollars were matched by two dollars from other sources.

- Living Room
  - A quiet place to read magazines in a comfortable setting.

- Slatwall Displays
  - Library materials are displayed on slatwall — throughout the library.

- Internet Café
  - Buy drinks and snacks from vending machines, read newspapers, use your laptop with our wireless network, or work on public Internet stations.

- Family Room
  - A celebration of the young reader, this colorful kid friendly space is as inviting as a young child’s room. Lots of open space and comfy seating for families.

- Marketplace: New & Popular Books
  - Find the library’s newest and most popular books for up to the past two years. You’ll find books for all ages here for young and older children, teens, and adults.

- Popular Interest Nonfiction
  - High interest books and media are brought to your attention.

- Teen Zone
  - An inviting space for teens to read, listen, and just ... be. Floor to ceiling books, audiobooks and magazines.

- Audio books on CD & Tape
  - Adult audio books are easy to browse.

- Slatwall Shelf End Displays
